

CASA ALISO

Delightfully secluded, the Casa Aliso is well known to experienced travelers who want to be near everything but require a quieter atmosphere.

Casa Aliso offers a warm welcome to weary travelers; one almost has the feeling of arriving at the home of an old friend. Our experienced and friendly staff hopes you have a pleasant stay.

LOCATION

Built in 1936, this lovely house is located in the fashionable residential neighborhood of La Floresta, a few steps away from the rush of the city; with just a short taxi ride you will find the most popular tourist attractions of Quito.

ACCOMMODATION

- Front garden view: Three lovely republican-style rooms with high ceilings and wooden floors which were the first ones to be built.
- Back garden view: These three rooms enjoy a serene atmosphere since their balconies enjoy a view of the pristinely-maintained garden where resident birds come throughout the day presenting a real life-music concert to the guests.
- Upper level rooms: On this level the bigger and more recently built rooms are located. They are constructed around a beautiful marble and iron staircase with a luxury antique chandelier.

SERVICES & FACILITIES

Whether your trip is one of business or leisure, the accommodation offered by Casa ALISO will exceed your expectations. The classic décor with a modern twist, stylish furniture, desks, windows draped with beautiful curtains and comfortable beds are sure to take your fancy.

The rooms have been individually designed and decorated, to include all modern amenities such as telephones, cable TV, a safe and a fire alert system with sprinklers. The bathrooms have telephones, bathtubs with showers, bathrobes and hairdryers.
