

LA CASA DEL SUIZO

Satiate your curiosity for the Amazon rainforest, learn new things and most important, have fun and relax with friends and family in one of the most established jungle lodges in Ecuador. Each day, the Napo River promises new adventures: the capuchin monkeys and macaws you spot out on the trails; the way of life of the local community you witness; and the raft you build with your own hands. As the sun sets over at La Casa del Suizo, head to the swimming pool to gaze at the stunning jungle view, relaxing into the night.

LOCATION

It's easy to forget how close you are to civilization when surrounded by the perfect wilderness of the Napo River, the Amazon's largest and most powerful tributary, and its lush, tropical forests. But La Casa del Suizo is accessible by car or bus (with a secure carpark to leave your vehicle) around three hours from Quito, followed by an easy 20-minute ride on motorized canoe.

ACCOMMODATION

Wake up listening to the singing of birds and the languid passage of the majestic Napo River in one of our 77 rooms, each with its own terrace and hammocks to enjoy, in all privacy, the exquisite view of the river and its lush jungle around. Fully equipped with electricity (and several outlets), ceiling fan and hot water 24 hours, we guarantee the most comfortable stay.
