

MANSIÓN ALCÁZAR

Entering Mansion Alcazar is as if one has traveled back in time to a traditional home that reflects the Republic of Ecuador's architecture from the end of the XIX century. It is in the heart of Cuenca, Ecuador which has been selected as one of the few world cultural heritage cities. The exquisite interior design, carefully chosen furniture, objects of art, and wonderful crystal chandeliers bring back the ambience of one of the oldest and most beautiful cities in Ecuador.

LOCATION

"Santa Ana de los Cuatro Ríos de Cuenca", The third most important city of Ecuador is a prestigious destination located in the south of the country.

Declared as a Cultural Heritage City of Humanity by UNESCO, Cuenca invites you to walk in its streets, know its history, visit its countless churches, taste typical dishes, and enjoy its culture. It is a colonial city that will enrich your lives and you will definitely want to return.
