

TAMBOPAXI LODGE

Under the majesty of the Cotopaxi Volcano and surrounded by an imposing frame of five other volcanoes of the Cordillera de los Andes, lies Hosteria Tambopaxi. This hotel in Cotopaxi, Ecuador is a comfortable and hospitable place, ready to welcome a great variety of guests coming from all over the world in search of adventure, sports, wellbeing or relaxation.

LOCATION

Two hours from Ecuador's capital city of Quito, Cotopaxi National Park is accessible amid valleys and volcanoes. The park covers 33,393 hectares, straddles three of Ecuador's provinces, and has an altitude ranging between 3,400 and 5,897 metres. In the very heart of this, the largest volcanic region in the whole of Ecuador, lies Hosteria Tambopaxi Lodge, a great option for accommodation in Cotopaxi.

ACCOMMODATION

We have two types of lodging:

- A principal cabin which houses 32 beds distributed in four rooms with shared bathrooms. The concept of this cabin is similar to a mountain refuge and it is used mostly by mountain climbers interested in getting acclimatized before climbing up Cotopaxi.
- An independent upgraded cabin with six bedrooms and private bathrooms focused on family vacation tourists looking for comfort and security.

All rooms have their own heating systems, permanent hot water and good insulation systems allowing you to enjoy a warm, comfortable atmosphere while you rest under a soft, fluffy eiderdown.

Tambopaxi guarantees a very high quality of service with its clean and comfortable facilities.
