HOTEL BOUTIQUE CASA GANGOTENA

First and foremost, the three-story restored mansion is a 'casa', a family home, an intimate and sophisticated space with all the facilities and services today's most refined world travelers expect.

LOCATION

Casa Gangotena occupies a pivotal place in Quito's historic heart: the southwest corner of Plaza San Francisco, specifically on Calle Bolívar Oe6-41 and Cuenca.

ACCOMMODATION

Casa Gangotena's rooms, with both double and king-size beds, are arranged across all three of its floors. Due to the property's heritage character, rooms vary in size, although they are all comfortably ample, averaging 35 m² (377 ft²) in area. All benefit from the mansion's elegant tall ceilings which draw the bright Andean sunlight into their interiors.

SERVICES & FACILITIES

Casa Gangotena is not only a hotel, but a place to experience Quito in your own way, with spaces to read, dream, and contemplate the astonishing surroundings. Extra services that provide the hotel go from a beautiful restaurant "Cedrón", the refurbished dancing room of the Gangotena family use for meetings and events and the fabulous panoramic view terrace.
