

OTAVALO INDIGENOUS MARKET

GREAT ESCAPES

The indigenous market of Otavalo is undoubtedly one of the most spectacular in all of South America. Its exceptional offer and its cultural relevance make it fascinating.

Departure from Quito to the north, we will cross the Guayllamba Valley fertile areas for agriculture, livestock and rose plantations, until we reach the city of Otavalo. This tour will take approximately 2 hours.

Stop in Miralago, we will make a stop to enjoy the view over the San Pablo Lake, it is considered a sacred lake, enjoy coffee, biscochos with queso de hoja (string cheese) before arriving at the market.

While traveling through the Ecuadorian Andes we arrive in Otavalo, our main destination and home to the largest artisanal market in South America. In Otavalo we take you on a journey through the indigenous market immersing yourself in our culture and learning about the Ecuadorian way of life.

Lunch will be offered in a beautiful Hacienda.

After exploring the market and having lunch, you will depart from Otavalo and make a stop at Peguche and experience local arts and crafts and meet the villagers themselves for us. Amongst its population, the village has its own weavers and Andean musicians.

Return to Quito.
