Guayaquil, The Pearl of the Pacific

This port city is a place full of a unique charm that has conquered national and foreign visitors. Throughout its streets you can find a mixture of traditions, customs and cultures.

Guayaquil, the largest city in Ecuador is the capital of the province of Guayas and offers a wide range of tourist sites. Its shopping centers, parks, museums and boardwalks are the most visited by travelers who are delighted by the magic offered by the so-called "Pearl of the Pacific."

A city of art, music, gastronomy, friendly people and sunsets that light the skies of the city, make Guayaquil a destination that must be visited, the city invites its own visitors to discover its tourist treasures, customs and traditions very characteristic of the Port; It is also a land that highlighted Ecuadorian literature with the "Group of Guayaquil", also the birthplace of pasillo singer Julio Jaramillo the "Nightingale of America"

Our visit includes La Catedral, el Parque Seminario, el Palacio de la Gobernación, el Cerro Santa Ana, el Barrio las Peñas, el Malecón Simón Bolívar, el Parque Samanes, el Parque Histórico de Guayaquil, among others, they are destinations of tourist interest that are visited every day by thousands of people who come to this cheerful and warm city.
