

MASHPI LODGE - NATURAL EXTRAVAGANCE

Discover the lush Chocó cloud forest and experience the essence of nature at its best. Mashpi Lodge is a National Geographic Unique Lodge of the World that offers a stay like no other. During excursions, you will be able to see up to 400 species of birds, trees, orchids, and many other endemic plants and animals. Get ready to trek through hidden paths, splash through rivers, and rise at dawn to spot rare birds, or see the forest aboard the Dragonfly canopy gondola. Mashpi Lodge was built using sustainable construction techniques, with a pergola-style roof, exterior seating spaces, and an open-air terrace to provide guests the opportunity to enjoy splendid the views and relax with the sounds of the forest and its inhabitants. Dining at Mashpi offers another form of exploration and delight. The gourmet cuisine is a homage to Ecuador's rich culinary heritage and seeks to make the most of the native ingredients and exuberant flavors of this paradise. When you experience Masphi, you venture into EXTRAVAGANCE.
